

ARTIST N. A. NOEL

International Involvement

Mara Masai Conservation and Wildlife Association
Board of Advisors, Greencross International/Global Green U.S.A.
African Medical Research Foundation
South African Wildlife Federation
“Rhino Rescue” of Africa and England
N. A. Noel Preschool, Rusinga Island, Kenya
(Noel is the sole supporter of this school/orphanage which currently houses over 100 children)
Indiana University Medical School/Kenya Program
(This program provides medical and educational services)
Fundraising Efforts for Orphanages and Awareness of Environmental Issues in Johannesburg, S. A.

Regional & National Philanthropic Involvement

Indianapolis Family Support Center
(1981, Co-founder of facility for abused women and children)
(Advisor for “Amish Fair” fundraiser which raises thousands of dollars annually)
The Julian Center
(Advisory Council member for center to assist victims of violence)
The Humane Society of Indianapolis
(Board member for Animal Shelter)
Humana Women’s Hospital
(Advisor for one of the leading women’s hospitals in the United States)
Indianapolis Children’s Museum
Indianapolis Zoo
Children’s Miracle Network
(Organization that grants wishes to terminally ill children)
James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children
Indiana University Hospital
Anne’s Angel of Hope Fund
(Advisor and contributor for the benefit of breast cancer research and awareness)
Brooke’s Place for Grieving Children
(Noel is a board member and developed a program using art and music for therapeutic purposes)
Carmelite Monastery
(Advisory Board Member - 2000 – 2003)
(Honorary Board Member – Current – 2004)
Indianapolis Women’s Prison
(Started a therapeutic program of spinning wool for offenders)
(Coordinating an animal shelter on the grounds of the prison to promote responsibility and nurturing)
(Summer of 2004 – Providing art classes to offenders)
Sharing the Gift - Llama Visits
(Noel and her llamas frequently visit hospitals, homes for the elderly and centers for the abused. Her goal is to reach out to these people who are infirmed and promote human and animal bonding)

Sharing the Gift – A Visit to Llandfair Farm

(Noel invites numerous groups to her farm for spiritual and education fulfillment. Some of these groups include The Blind School, Brooke's Place for Grieving Children and many "at risk" and abused children)
(Summer of 2004 – Classes for organic farming and ecological responsibility will be offered)
(Summer of 2004 – Noel to offer art classes to gifted children)

Sharing the Gift – Donations

(Annually, Noel donates over 5,000 art prints to responsible organizations for their fundraising efforts)
(Over 7,000 of Noel's award-winning books have been donated to organizations, such as: MD Anderson Cancer Research Hospital, St. Jude Hospitals, "Why Me" Cancer Support Group, and many others)
(Noel donated 1,500 "Believe" books for the first annual Cantor Fitzgerald Memorial held in Central Park, New York, honoring the families who lost their loved ones on 9/11)

Philanthropic Endeavors

Artwork published for not-for-profit projects:

The Mechanic, Humane Society of Indianapolis
Companion, 1992, Canine Companions for Independence
Lamb, 1986, Crossroads Rehabilitation Center, Indianapolis, IN Harmony, 1991, Indiana Children's Wish Fund, Indianapolis, IN Friends, 1983, Lincoln Park Zoo, Chicago, IL
Gift Horse, 1990, St. Mary's Children's Hospital, Cincinnati, OH
Toy Basket, 1986, Bloomington Hospital, Bloomington, IN Raggedy Ann, 1992, Indianapolis Children's Museum, Indianapolis, IN Jumping For America, 1987, United States Equestrian Team, Virginia
Angel of the Arts, 1996, The Penrod Society, Indianapolis, IN Angel of Cheer, 1999, Riley Children's Hospital, Indianapolis, IN Always, 1997, Sigma Theta Tau International-The Honor Society of Nursing
Angel of Hope, 2000, Anne's Angel of Hope Fund, Zionsville, IN Spirit of Freedom, 2001, United States Air Force
Gentle Heart, 2001, Down Syndrome Awareness
Girl with Robin, 2003, Community School Corporation/Cragun House Tea, Lebanon, IN